Ag Income Shows Slump For 1967

Gross agriculture income from livestock and crops in Randall County during 1967 was a little below what the area should receive, according to Agent John Brazzil.

Brazzil said the yearly average gross of 12 million dollars, which is divided almost equally between livestock and crops, is down somewhat, especially in the crops department.

"A late freeze May 1 last year," he pointed out, "did extensive damage to the irrigated wheat crop, with some wheat a total loss."

Dryland wheat, which was in poor condition due to a lack of moisture when the untimely freeze hit the area, suffered most, he said.

"The year started dry and there was no appreciable moisture until June," he continued. "In the early summer we had poor grazing and emergency grazing was set on some soil bank land."

The emergency grazing was discontinued in late June and July when the area received some moisture.

Planting moisture was available (See AG Page 2)

Oil Leasing In Randall

Oil companies leased heavily in Randall County in 1967 and at year end there were unconfirmed rumors of impending test wells to be drilled this year.

Biggest leaser was Shell Oil Company, although some other majors and some independents did some leasing in the county during the year.

Shell started leasing early in 1967. Reports here say that it was the company's intent to lease a 12-mile strip across the county from north to south. The reports placed the eastern edge of the strip at about Highway 87 with the western edge running roughly through Umbarger.

Knowledgeable sources here in Canyon said lease payment ran from $1 to $5 an acre with $1 renewal.

Humble and Standard also did some leasing in the county, according to County Clerk Leroy Hutton. A few independents also did some leasing.

Shell seismograph crews started working in the county about last March. Vibrator trucks were used for seismograph operations.

Children's Cage Meet Scheduled

A meeting of boys and girls interested in playing basketball has been called by Dr. Duane Guy for 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

The meeting will be held in the basement of the old administration building at West Texas State University. Participation is open to 4th, 5th and 6th grade students.

Dr. Guy said coaches and adult assistants are badly needed.

Joint Meet Wednesday

Marvin Springer, urban planner of Dallas, will meet here Wednesday with members of the City, Planning and Zoning commissions to discuss a new zoning ordinance for Canyon.

Cities, Counties Sending Delegates

Formation of a Council of Governments will be discussed today, Thursday, at a meeting of several subdivisions of government in the Amarillo metropolitan area.

Canyon city commissioners and Randall County commissioners are scheduled to attend the meeting called by Amarillo Mayor J. Ernest Stroud for 3:30 o'clock in the Amarillo Municipal Building.

Also involved in today's talks will be members of the Amarillo city commission and Potter County commissioners.

Theoretically, a COG is designed to promote communications between various subdivisions of government and to facilitate planning in urban areas.

If a COG is established for the Amarillo metropolitan area membership would be open to the cities of Amarillo and Canyon as well as to Potter and Randall Counties, Amarillo Independent School District, Canyon School District, Bushland School District, Highland Park School District, River Road School District, Umbarger School District, Happy School District and Wildorado School District.

Membership also would be open to eleven special districts or interest groups.

COGs across the country are being pushed by the Department of Housing and Urban Development. Voluntary membership is being stressed by HUD but officials here are under the impression that certain federal grants are not available in certain metropolitan areas to local subdivisions of governments if they are not members of a COG.

A COG has no taxing power but is supported by assessments of member governmental subdivisions, districts and interest groups. Plans call for representation in each COG to be made up of at least 51 percent elected officials from member groups. Each COG must have a salaried manager.

Tourists Crowd To Canyon Area

Thousands of tourists visited local attractions during 1967. A record attendance of 543,000 visitors at Buffalo Lake National Wildlife Refuge was recorded during the year, even though the area was posted for more than a month this summer due to polluted waters.

This marks the first year the lake has been posted against

by Troy Martin
FROM THE

CANYON RIM

Representatives from Canyon and Randall County will meet with Amarillo and Potter County representatives this afternoon to consider the establishment of a Council of Governments for the Amarillo metropolitan area.

Theoretically the function of a COG for the area would be to improve communication among governmental agencies and to facilitate planning for the urban area.

On the surface this appears to be good. The COG is to be made up of at least 51 percent elected officials from participating subdivisions of government.

If the function of the COG is to be limited to planning and communications, then I'm for it. We certainly need more communications among the various groups running our area.

I pointed out a short time ago that there are at least nine different law enforcement agencies operating in Potter and Randall Counties. I heard of a law enforcement officer sitting on a parking lot recently while a grocery store robbery was in progress less than a block away.

One law enforcement agency (a different branch) which was aware of what was going on, for some reason did not communicate with the officer who was near the scene of the crime and the robber got away. An incident like this underlines the need for better communication. There are any number of projects which, with a little planing, Canyon and Amarillo and Potter and Randall Counties could undertake together to advantage.

However, before I would go for the COG for this area there are some questions I would like to have answered.

Is it going to supercede local government?

How much federal and state control will be exercised over the COG?

If it is not to be financed by taxation, then exactly how will it be financed?

What authority will the COG have?

How will it be able to enforce the authority?

Local government is becoming unwieldy in some areas and some effort toward streamlining should be made in the immediate future.

In Bexar County, I am told, there are 57 separate taxing agencies. This is not only unhandy, it's wasteful. I think some more thought should be given to combining the tax offices of the city, county and school here in Randall County.

At least some serious thought should be given to putting the city and school tax departments into one office. It would not only be a move for economy, it would be much handier for the taxpayer if anyone is still worrying about the taxpayer.

I'd also like to see some thought given to the county unit plan for Randall County. Under this system county equipment would be pooled.

It seems to me that under the unit plan such county business as road maintenance would be less expensive and also improved.

If we're going to keep local government then we must take steps to see that it is efficient, economical and able to act in meeting the people's needs.

If we sit on our hands and whine about federal encroachment and still do nothing we can expect the vacuum we leave to be filled by Washington and Austin. We can expect the HUDs and COGs and other three-letter bureaucracies to proliferate and local government to wane.

I've said it before and I'll say it again. Ad valorem tax is the most unfair tax ever dreamed up by man.

It has put a back-bending tax burden on the modern owner of real estate and the burden he's carrying in financing the city, state and school subdivisions of government has reached scandalous proportions.

We're going to have to find some other way to finance our schools and cities. Right now the only avenue I see open is the sales tax.

Real estate simply can't carry any bigger load. Our school buildings, court houses and streets of the future must be financed from some other source.

One Congressman noted that for President Johnson to try to solve the balance of payments problem by keeping tourists at home is like trying to close a mortal wound with a band aid.

It is the federal government which is doing the most spending abroad. If this keeps up, Americans can stay home until dooms day and the balance of payments will still be unfavorable to the US.

able in late June, he noted, and grain sorghums "got off to a good start".

A dry August caused dryland sorghums to have low yields, and rather than harvest the crop, many farmers grazed the land with cattle.

An infection of dwarf mosaic hit the irrigated grain sorghums in mid-July, but favorable growing conditions carried the crop on to what Brazzil described as "excellent yield"—a yield which broke previous records of pounds per acre.

While dryland grain sorghum yield was short, he explained the extra amounts received on irrigated crops means income was about normal.

Soybeans, cotton and sugar beets also added to the Randall County agricultural income in 1967, he said, with soybeans yielding as much as 30 bushels per acre on some farms.

There was a large increase in the number of cattle feed in the county last year, especially after the completion of a feeding operation northwest of Canyon.

In 1968, Brazzil stated, Randall County expects to feed more than 30,000 cattle, which should add to the amount of the agricultural and business-related income.

The county, the agent explained, continues to be one of the leaders of population growth rate of all counties in the United States.

According to figures compiled by the University of Texas Population Research Center April 1, 1966, there were 54,922 people living in Randall County. This is an average annual growth rate of 7.9 per cent during the years 1960-1966.

"This far exceeded any county in Texas," Brazzil declared, "and puts Randall County in the top six in the United States in terms of growth."

while he or she is getting an education.

Morris says the Opportunity Plan came into being because he didn't like the red tape involved in the student loan plan on the campus. This was while he was director of the WTSU Ex-Students Association. Many times he loaned money to students out of his own pocket.

On one occasion he asked the college for a loan of $500 so he could loan it to students. The college agreed but Buff said there were so many strings attached that he decided to raise the money himself.

He set out to raise the money and has been doing so ever since.

The Opportunity Plan was incorporated in 1959. Harvey Allen of Amarillo has been president of its board of directors since the beginning.

Since its inception, the Opportunity plan has loaned about $1 1/2 million to approximately 1,600 students. Delinquencies total about $10,000, which is less than one percent. Loans outstanding to past and present students are about $300,000.

Buff Morris was born in 1909 in Gray, Okla. He attended schools in Oklahoma and at Perryton. He was graduated from West Texas State in 1934. He taught school, took another degree at Texas A&I and then a masters degree from Texas Tech. He returned to West Texas as a teacher and then principal of the demonstration school, director of men's dormitories, executive secretary of the Ex-Student Association and then finally director of student financial aids.

At the moment Dr. J. A. Hill is heading up a committee raising an Opportunity Plan fund in honor of Buff and Mrs. Morris.

COG. . .

COG has been estimated at about $55,000, according to Mayor Stroud.

A set of proposed by laws has been prepared for submission to the group this afternoon. Canyon officials say these by-laws do not make clear what authority such a COG would possess.

Mayor Stroud says he is against formation of a COG for the Amarillo area.

Canyon Mayor Paul Lindsey said he would not go along with the establishment of a COG until he has considerably more information on its structure, financing and authority.

At a previous meeting of the groups, Springer indicated he planned to submit a map to the commissions showing various proposed zones for Canyon.

A rough draft of the new subdivision regulations has been discussed by the three governmental agencies, but no formal adoption has been made.

City Manager Paul Davis said he hoped Canyon's subdividers, who had copies of the proposed subdivision regulations, would submit suggestions concerning changes before the Wednesday meeting.

Heading the City, Zoning and Planning commissions are Mayor Paul Lindsey, Roland Black, and Herschel Coffee, respectively.

"TEXAS", musical staged in Palo Duro Canyon State Park, drew 64,733 visitors this year, a figure which is 3,395 over 1966. The production plays for three months each summer. Park records show a total of 363,507 visitors during the year, with a high of almost 87,000 in August and a low of 4,355 in December. The 300,000-plus figure does not include those coming to see the "TEXAS" show.

Building Recorded For 1967

Dollar value of building permits issued in Canyon during 1967 were about one-half the amount recorded for 1966.

However, almost half the 1966 amount was for construction on the West Texas State University campus.

Permits totaling $2,150,097; 66 for 1967 were issued in permits, according to City Building Inspector E. A. Collier, compared to $4,822,864 for 1966.

Largest permit issued in September 1967 was to the W. P. Francis Construction Company of Norman, Oklahoma, for an apartment complex on the northern edge of Canyon. Permit for the apartment construction was $600,000, but work on the project has not started.

In January, when permits issued came to $305,340.66, some $270,000 of the amount was for the construction of the Palo Duro Village Shopping Center here.

Lowest amount of permits in any month during 1967 was for December when $57,100 was recorded.

Buffaloes Face Rugged Schedule

West Texas State's Buffaloes expected their 1967-68 basketball schedule to be rugged, but the records compiled by their opponents thus far suggest that rugged is hardly the word for it.

A national "top six" based on winning percentage alone would find four West Texas State opponents among its members, with a combined record of 42-1. As of January 2, the nation's six most successful cage powers were:

1-Houston	13-0	1,000
2-New Mexico	11-0	1,000
3-St. Bonaventure	9-0	1,000
4-(tie)---
UCLA	8-0	1,000
Oklahoma City	8-0	1,000
6-(tie)---
New Mexico State	10-1	.909
Utah	10-1	.909

The Buffs face Houston, Oklahoma City, and New Mexico State twice each this year. Home games with these teams are Feb. 10, Oklahoma City; Feb. 26, New Mexico State; and March 4, Houston.

The West Texans battled the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque on Dec. 13, but will not play the Lobos in Canyon.

Other WTSU foes are setting a torrid pace. Former national champion Texas of El Paso is rocking along at a .778 clip with a 7-2 record, while Texas A&M's 6-3 mark is good for a

'B' Tournament Scheduled Here

Six area high schools will have teams here Jan. 11-13 for a Canyon High School-sponsored 'B' team basketball tournament.

Canyon will enter both a sophomore and junior team in competition and the CHS girls will pit one squad against the area visitors.

First through third place trophies will be awarded and in case of a tie, the deciding factor will be the total number of points scored.

Other schools in the 'B' tournament will be Happy, Friona, Boys Ranch, Hereford, Alamo-Catholic and Tulia.

.667 rate. The University of Albuquerque stands even at 4-4 for .500.

The Houston Cougars are ranked second nationally by both the Associated Press and United Press International, Oklahoma City's Chiefs are eighth on both polls, University of New Mexico's Lobos are ranked 10th with AP and tied for 15th with UPI, and the Aggies of New Mexico State and Texas A&M both received an honorable mention from AP but were not listed by UPI.

Dr. Whitmill Is Stricken

Dr. R. C. Whitmill of the West Texas State University faculty suffered a heart attack Dec. 23.

His condition was described as good Wednesday. He is in Neblett Hospital.

Dr. Whitmill is in the Education Department at WTSU.

Canyon Defeats

Adrian 55-38

Canyon High School girls basketball squad will travel to Stinet Friday for both 'A' and 'B' cage contests with the Rattlers.

The Canyon lassies downed Adrian there Tuesday evening for a final score of 55 to 38. Canyon lead scoring at the end of the first half of play 29 to 18 and was ahead 43 to 26 at the close of the third period.

Sheryl Davis scored 19 points for the Eagles, Jan Sternenberg sank 18 and Pam Richardson was a close third with 17.

Linda Dudenhoeffer, CHS forward, pulled down 12 rebounds and earned an equal number of points from the coaches for the highest record this season. Beverly Brown had six rebounds.

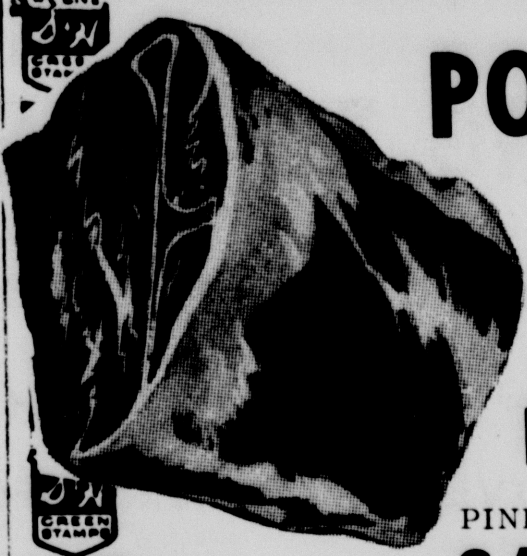

For the guards, Sheryl Davis had 31 points, followed by Pam Richardson with 26.

The girls here will begin district competition for the season Jan. 12 against Muleshoe.

Peak month for licenses issued was in August when 39 were recorded, compared to a low of 13 in April. Number of divorce cases filed in 1967 averaged 60 per month and only one of the 692 filed was denied.

Number of instruments filed in the clerk's office for 1967 was about 9,500, as compared to 9,463 for 1966. The 9,000-plus figure for 1967 is the lowest number of instruments filed since 1960 when 8,487 were recorded.

Buffaloes To Meet Dons Here Tonight

The West Texas State University Buffaloes will seek to start the new year with their first victory of the season tonight. They meet the University of Albuquerque Dons at 8 o'clock in the Fieldhouse.

The Albuquerque quintet is fresh from winning the Southern Utah Holiday Tournament and have won their last three games.

In the meantime, the WT freshmen were to have played the Texas Tech Picadores at Tech Wednesday night.

Led by 6-5 senior forward Lyndell Conaway, who brings a 34 point scoring average into tonight's game, the Dons boast one of the finest shooting teams in the nation. In evening their record at 4-4 they have connected on 52 percent of their field shots.

Joining Conaway in the probable starting lineup will be guards Charlie Ratz, who scored at a 21.5 clip as a Jefferson City schoolboy whiz last year and senior Joe Cook. Freshman Bob Bissent, former all-state schoolboy from Louisiana, will join Conaway at the starting forward post. Wilton Rogers, 6-3 high jumping senior, will draw the starting center assignment.

Coach Dennis Walling's Buffs, idle since dropping their third game of the season to powerful University of New Mexico Dec. 13, will enter tonight's game without the full services of guards Gale Rhine and Lonnie Speck and top inside reserve David Nowlin. All have been hobbled by injuries since returning from the Christmas holidays. The Buff's leading scorer, forward Simmie Hill, underwent a tonsilectomy over the holidays but is expected to draw a starting assignment tonight. Hill presently ranks 11th nationally with a 28.3 scoring average.

Other probable Buff starters include guards Mike Mitchell (19.5), and David Cole (1.3), center Maurice Savage (10.3) and either guard Mike Horton (2.0) or forward Jim Nielsen.

The Buffs will host Colorado State University here Monday night. The West Texas Freshman team opens Monday night's basketball card against Cameron of Lawton, Okla. Freshman tipoff is set for 6 p.m., with the varsity game following at 8 p.m.

City's 1967 Activities Reviewed

BY WAYNE BOARD
The emphasis during 1967 City Commission sessions here seemed to be on growth and what measures could be accomplished to meet ever increasing needs.

While commissioners spent most of their time discussing subdivision regulations, zoning ordinances, sewerage plant expansion, curb and gutter policies and street improvements, little was decided and the talks will probably continue during the major portion of 1968.

City fathers reversed two major decisions during the year -- one on the extension of free water and sewer lines to a proposed apartment complex north of the city limits, and the other on one-way streets for Canyon. The governing body of Canyon first tentatively agreed in August to provide $50,000 worth of water lines at city expense to a 144-unit apartment complex north of town, planning to recoup the funds via allied service charges to the business establishment.

Later the same month, a dozen Canyon businessmen complained the city should not subsidize a private enterprise with tax dollars and commissioners then turned thumbs down on the water and sewer line installation.

Jim Crockett, who was developer on the apartment project, then received approval from the commission on a counter-proposal that the city pay one-half the cost of the lines when the property was annexed. Although Crockett has since announced plans for an apartment complex one-half the size originally planned and at a new location north of Hunsley Hills, work on the project has not begun.

In the hassle over one-way streets, commissioners first approved Fifth Avenue as a one-way going west in March, but later rescinded their resolution and instead made Third go west and Fifth go east.

City fathers discussed removing one-way traffic signs in May and after hearing objections from several businessmen, changed the flow of traffic back to two-way in July. While the commission agreed to again discuss one-ways later in 1967, the matter has not been mentioned since the July decision. It appeared everything was running smoothly toward a Planning Grant approval from the federal government when it was announced in January the first of three hurdles had been cleared with an okay from the Department of Health in Austin. It was then announced in February that it might be July of 1968 before the grant would be approved.

At an August meeting, Marvin Springer of Dallas who prepared the grant request, said although the Department of Housing and Urban Development had not approved the planning assistance, work on a land use survey would begin.

Several meetings involving the City, Planning and Zoning commissions have been conducted with Springer to formulate new subdivision regulations and a zoning ordinance for Canyon, but no formal action has come from the conclaves.

In early November, commissioners were told the planning grant might not be approved until even later than had been expected because HUD had not received appropriations for the fiscal year 1968. Last April, commissioners agreed to pay Springer for some of the services outlined in the grant request even if no funds from HUD were made available to Canyon.

As for streets, commissioners sanctioned a summer paving program that encompassed some 80 blocks of seal-coating and some new street improvements in the Money Addition. Cost of the paving program was about $56,000 and city dads talked of widening Second, Third and Fifth Avenues at some future time.

Commissioners were forced to meet in late April to give a vote of confidence to the previously adopted program after it had been rumored there would be no angle parking on newly-widened streets around the outside of the "square".

In October, city dads made a formal request to the Texas Highway Department for a grade crossing of Fifteenth Street across US Highway 60.

The city council said Canyon would participate with the State for the costs of curb and gutter and right of way on the project. Developer Arch Hunsley had earlier agreed to make right of way north of Highway 60 available for the extension of Fifteenth Street north to Southridge Drive to Hunsley Hills.

Cost of storm sewer and curb and gutter for the project will be about $20,000, with the work to be done possibly by 1970.

As for parking, a new policy was adopted in December, with changes directed primarily at developers of multi-family dwellings. Commissioners had agreed earlier to deviate from recommendations by the city engineer that no 60-degree angle parking be allowed at an apartment at 2710 10th Avenue.

Under the newly adopted policy, off-street parking for specific businesses was spelled out and apartment owners are required to submit a parking plot plan prior to construction showing an allowance for two parking spaces per unit.

The city's fiscal year began the first of April with a budget of $469,363, a figure down $57,419 from the previous year. In May $50,000 in certificates of deposit were purchased from the West Texas State Bank here for a 60-day period.

The action in May took $30,000 from the general fund and $20,000 from the water and sewer system fund for investment in the certificates of deposit. The move to invest the idle funds brought in revenue of 3.5 per cent on the $50,000.

Shortly after the budget was approved, a city commission election unseated incumbents J. Manly Bryan and John Williams. The two city commissioners were replaced by Tom Foster and Felix Pierce, who promised to limit the power of then City Manager Gary Gwyn.

Gwyn resigned June 26 and was replaced in the city manager post in late August by Paul I. Davis. Also employed in 1967 was Rankin Eisenburg as tax assessor-collector.

After discussion that spanned several commission sessions in September and October, city fathers agreed to subsidize the LaGrone Ambulance Service for $562.50 per month. In early November, Jerry LaGrone, owner of the ambulance service, withdrew the subsidy request. He said a segment of the community opposed the ambulance assistance from the city.

Canyon had a taste of taxicab service here during November, but the business was terminated within 10 days after it began.

Commissioners last year sanctioned rate increases for Pioneer Natural Gas and Southwestern Public Service Company.

SWPC Announces Huge Expansion

A $17,818,000 construction program for 1968, including power plant additions to increase electric generating capability by 225,000 kilowatts, was announced today by Roy Tolp, president of Southwestern Public Service Co.

Tolp said the utility had invested more than $200 million in new equipment in the last 10 years.

The completion of a 210,000-kilowatt addition to the Nichols Station, northwest of Amarillo, and installation of a 15,200-kilowatt gas turbine in the Guymon, Okla., area, will raise SWPSC generating capacity to 1,717,000 kilowatts.

Tolp noted this was twice the capability which the company had 10 years ago.

The Guymon installation will be used primarily for peaking purposes during periods of high usage. It also will provide area protection, complementing transmission line power sources in the Oklahoma Panhandle. The plant will be operated by remote control from Guymon.

Tolp said water and electricity will begin combining forces for efficiency and economy in 1968 with the beginning of utilization of the Sanford Dam project by the 11 member cities of the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority. Major pumping on the system will be done electrically on a controlled peak system supervised at SWPSC's dispatching center in Amarillo.

Other improvements planned during the coming year will strengthen the electric company's 4,200 mile transmission system and provide for additions to distribution facilities throughout the 45,000-square-mile service area.

Tolp said that 1967 was a "year of decision on the High Plains and this is the basis for our optimism for 1968 and other years to come."

"The thoughtful consideration and financial support which has been given this year to plans and programs to bring imported water to this area typifies the initiative of the people of this region," he said. "This 'it can be done' spirit benefits the world and the nation - as well as this region - for no other area is better suited for agricultural development. With supplemental water, this territory will play a major role in feeding the world, and the diversified development of agriculture and industry will make it one of the most productive areas of the nation."

This is what the 1968 license tag will look like. It is being modeled here by Mrs. L. H. Benham, who is employed in the Randall County tax assessor-collector's office. Tags will go on sale Feb. 1.

Marion Bruce of Randall County this week announced his candidacy in the Democratic Primary as State Representative from the 75th District.

Bruce is a native of Randall County, where he was born in 1912, and where he still lives just outside the city limits of Amarillo.

He served as Lieutenant-Governor of Kiwanis International in 1961 and is a member of the Legion of Merit (25 years of perfect attendance).

He became a member of the Randall County School Board in 1946, when his name was written in while he was attending the Plainview Dairy Show, which he later served as President. During the same period, he served on the Tax Equalization Board for the Canyon Independent School District.

Bruce is chairman of the Citizens Group Work and Recreation Council, Potter Randall Citizens Committee, and has been a Council member since 1956 when its work brought a sharp decrease in juvenile delinquency in the metropolitan area while the national rate was rapidly increasing. He served as the first president of the Friends of Youth, which works with the Potter County Court of Domestic Relations, and which brought about the formation of the Amarillo Big Brothers. He has been a Kids Inc. coach and leader in establishing other youth recre-

"I believe I am qualified to serve the interests of all citizens of the 75th District -- urban and rural -- for I have faced the same problems they have," he said.
